Driven by reform and guided by innovation, the Company actively explored the deployment of strategic emerging industries. Its first production line for the PV industry was completed and put into trial production. SegMaker+, smart parking lots, and other new projects achieved preliminary results. Based on the existing industrial business, supported by investment, mergers & acquisitions, reform, and innovation, the Company continuously expanded the industrial chain, actively transformed itself into a platform for diversified strategic emerging industries, and continuously enhanced and strengthened its core competitiveness and sustainable development capabilities

2. Are there significant changes in main business in the reporting period?

Yes No

3. Information on products accounting for over 10% of operating income or operating profit

Yes No

4. Are there seasonal or cyclical characteristics of the operation needing special attention?

Yes No

5. Notes to significant changes in the operating income, operating costs, total net profit attributable to common shareholders of the listed company, or composition in the reporting period over the previous reporting period

Applicable Not applicable

During the reporting period, the Company's total business income was about 1.612 billion yuan, down 418 million yuan from the same period last year, with a decline of 20.60%; and the total profit was about 94 million yuan, down by about 346 million yuan from the same period last year, with a decline of 77.98%. The main reasons for the decline in income are: ① The sales of SEG New Urban decreased by 131 million yuan compared with the same period last year; and ② The Company disclosed the Announcement of Prompting Risks of the Issues Relating to the Controlled Sub-subsidiary Receiving the Notice of Cancelling Contract on April 16, 2019, based on the provisions of ASBE No. 29 Matters After the Date of Balance Sheet, during the period between the said date and the date of being approved for submittal, the sales of products confirmed in the period when the Balance Sheet locates or the previous period must be transferred back to the matters after the date of Balance Sheet to be adjusted, the Balance Sheet, which was prepared on the said date, shall be adjusted accordingly. Consequently, the Company transferred back the sales of Floors 2 to 5 of Building 1 of SEG New Urban Phase I leading to the deduction of approximately 300 million yuan in this reporting period. The main reasons for the decline in total profit are: ① The profit of Huakong SEG, the shareholding company, decreased compared with the same period last year, leading to the deduction of 26 million yuan of total profit of the Company; ② In the reporting period, the Company accrued the provision of asset impairment, increasing by about 80 million yuan; ③ In the reporting period, because of delaying the delivery of real estate and postponing the completion of the procedures of applying for ownership certificate, the compensation of breaching contract is estimated to make the total profit decrease by 123 million yuan; ④ The transferring back the sales of Floors 2 to 5 of Building 1 of SEG New Urban Phase I resulted in the deduction of 77 million yuan of total profit; and ⑤ Because the financial expense increased owing to the completion of real estate project which stopped the securitization of financial expense, and the Company saved the management expense, these two factors made the period expenses rose by about 35 million yuan on year on year basis.
