Where the board of supervisors approves the convening of the interim shareholders' meeting, it shall within five days from the date of the receipt of the said written request give notice thereof. If the notice changes the original proposal, the approval of the relevant shareholders shall be required.

Where the board of supervisors fails to send the said notice within the prescribed time limit, it shall be deemed that they failed to convene and preside over the shareholders' meeting and shareholders which singly or jointly hold more than 10% of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside the meeting independently.

Article 49 Where the board of supervisors or the shareholders decide to convene the shareholders' meeting independently, they shall notify the board of directors in writing to such effect and file with the stock exchange.

Prior to the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' meeting, the total shares of the convening shareholders shall not be less than 10%.

The board of supervisors or the convening shareholders shall, upon sending the notice of the shareholders' meeting and announcing the resolutions of the shareholders' meeting, submit related certificates to the stock exchange.

Article 50 With respect to shareholders' meetings independently convened by the board of supervisors or the shareholders, the board of directors and the secretary of the board of directors shall give their cooperation. The board of directors shall provide the register of shareholders of equity registration date.

Article 51 Where the shareholders' meeting is held independently by the board of supervisors or shareholders, all necessary costs and expenses of the meeting shall be borne by the Company.

Section 4 Proposal and Notice of Shareholders' meetings

Article 52 The contents of a proposal shall be amongst the functions and powers of the shareholders' meeting, have clear topics for discussion and detailed resolution matters, and be in line with the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 53 Where the Company holds the shareholders' meeting, the board of directors, the board of supervisors and the shareholders that singly or jointly hold more than 3% of the Company's shares shall have the right to raise proposals to the Company.

The shareholders that singly or jointly hold more than 3% of the Company's shares may, 10 days prior to the convention of the shareholders' meeting, raise the interim proposals and submit them in writing to the convener. The convener shall, within two days after receipt of such proposals, issue a supplementary notice of the shareholders' meeting, and announce the contents of the interim proposals.

Except for the circumstances prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the convener, after having issued the notice of the shareholders' meeting, shall not amend proposals which have been expressly set out or add new proposal to the said notice.

Proposals which are not listed in the said notice or are inconsistent with Article 52 of these Articles of Association shall not be voted on or resolved on the shareholders' meeting.

Article 54 For the annual shareholders' meeting, the convener shall by announcement notify all the shareholders 20 days prior to the convention of the said meeting. For the interim shareholders' meeting, the convener shall by announcement notify all the shareholders 15 days in advance. When calculating the notice period, the day when the meeting is held shall not be included.

Article 55 The notice of the shareholders' meeting shall include the following contents:

(1) time, place and time limit of the shareholders' meeting;

- (2) matters and proposals submitted to the shareholders' meeting for its examination and deliberation;
- (3) clearly written explanation: all shareholders shall have the right to attend the shareholders' meeting and may in writing entrust their proxies to attend the meeting and participate in votes. The proxies of the shareholders may not necessarily be the shareholders of the Company;
- (4) equity registration date of any shareholder entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting;
- (5) name and telephone number of the contact person in charge of shareholders' meeting matters; and
- (6) the time and procedure of voting online or by any other means.

Article 56 Where the shareholders' meeting intends to discuss matters related to the election of directors and supervisors, the notice of the shareholders' meeting shall fully disclose detailed information about such directors and supervisors, including at least the following contents:

- (1) such personal information as the education background, working experience, part-time job and so on;
- (2) whether the candidates for directors or supervisors have affiliated relationship with the Company or its controlling shareholders and the actual controllers;
- (3) disclose the number of Company shares held by the candidates for directors or supervisors; and
- (4) whether candidates for directors or supervisors have received punishments by the CSRC or other departments or warning reprimands from the stock exchange.

Except for the election of directors and supervisors by means of a cumulative voting system, each director or supervisor candidate shall be nominated in a single proposal.

Article 57 Once the notice of the shareholders' meeting is issued, the shareholders' meeting shall not be postponed or canceled without justifiable cause, nor shall the proposals set out in the shareholders' meeting notice be canceled. In the case of the said postponement or cancellation, the convener shall make an announcement stating reasons for such postponement or cancellation at least two working days in advance of the original date for holding the shareholders' meeting.

Section 5 Holding of Shareholders' Meetings

Article 58 The board of directors and other conveners of the Company shall take necessary measures to ensure the normal order of the shareholders' meetings. The board of directors and other conveners of the Company shall take measures to prevent acts which interfere with the shareholders' meeting, cause disturbance or infringe on the lawful rights of the shareholders, and shall promptly report such acts to the relevant departments for investigation and punishment.

Article 59 All shareholders recorded in the register of shareholders on the equity registration date or their proxies shall have the right to attend the shareholders' meeting and exercise their voting rights in accordance with the relevant laws, rules and these Articles of Association.

The interval between the equity registration date and the date of meeting shall not be more than seven working days. The equity registration date shall not be changed once it is determined.

Article 60 Where the individual shareholders personally attend the shareholders' meeting, they shall present their identification cards or other valid certificates which verify their identities, and their stock account cards; where the individual shareholders entrust their proxies to attend the meeting on their behalf, said proxies shall present their valid identity certificates and the power of attorney from the shareholder.

In the case of legal person shareholders, their legal representatives or proxies entrusted by such legal representatives shall attend the meeting. The legal representatives, if attending the meeting, shall present their identification cards and valid certificates which verify their qualifications as legal representative; where proxies are entrusted by such legal representatives to attend the meeting, such proxies shall present their identification cards, and the written power of attorney as issued legally by the legal representatives of the legal person shareholders.

Article 61 The power of attorney, as issued by the shareholders, shall indicate that proxies are entrusted to attend the shareholders' meeting and shall contain the following items:

- (1) the name of each proxy;
- (2) whether each proxy has voting rights;
- (3) indication on affirmative, negative or abstention vote upon every matter which is listed in the agenda of and shall be examined and deliberated at the shareholders' meeting;

- (4) issuing date and term of validity of the power of attorney;
- (5) signature (or seal) of the principal. Where the principal is a legal person shareholder, the official seal of the legal person shareholder shall be affixed.

Article 62       The power of attorney shall clarify whether the shareholders' proxies may act at their discretion without specific instructions from the shareholders.

Article 63       Where the power of attorney granted for voting by proxy is signed by a person entrusted by the principal, the authorization letter signed by authorization or other authorization documents shall be notarized. The notarized authorization letter or other authorization documents, as well as the power of attorney granted for voting by proxy shall be kept at the domicile of the Company or at any other place prescribed in the Notice for convening the shareholders' meeting.

Where the principal is the legal person, it shall be represented at the shareholders' meeting of the Company by its legal representative, or any other person as authorized by the board of directors or any other decision-making organ.

Article 64       The register of attendants of the shareholders' meeting shall be prepared by the Company. The register shall expressly record such matters as the name of the attendant (or of the unit thereof), the identification card number, domicile address of the attendant, the number of voting shares held or represented by the attendant, and the name of the principal (or the unit thereof).

Article 65       The convener and the lawyer engaged by the Company shall, in accordance with the register of shareholders provided by Shenzhen Branch of China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited, jointly verify the legality of the qualification of each shareholder, and register the full name of and number of voting shares held by each shareholder. Prior to the announcement by the presider of the total number of shareholders who attend the on-site shareholders' meeting and the total number of the voting shares held by the attending shareholders and proxies, the registration shall be ceased.

Article 66       At the time of the shareholders' meeting, all the directors, supervisors and the secretary of the board of directors of the Company shall attend the meeting, and President and CEO and other senior executives shall sit on the meeting.

Article 67       The shareholders' meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the board of directors. Where the chairman is unable to or fails to perform his duties, the shareholders' meeting shall be presided over by a director jointly elected by the majority of all the directors.

If independently convened by the board of supervisors, the shareholders' meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the board of supervisors. Where the chairman of the board of supervisors is unable to or fails to perform his duties, the shareholders' meeting shall be presided over by a supervisor jointly elected by the majority of all the supervisors.

Shareholders' meetings independently convened by the shareholders shall be presided over by a representative elected by the convener.

Where the presider violates the procedural rules while the shareholders' meeting is being held so that the meeting is unable to continue, a presider may, with the approval by the majority of voting rights represented by the shareholders present at the shareholders' meeting, be elected by the shareholders' meeting to preside the meeting.

Article 68 The Company shall formulate the procedural rules of the shareholders' meeting, which shall prescribe the detailed holding and voting procedures of said meeting, including the notice, registration, examination and deliberation of proposals, ballot, vote calculation, announcement of voting results, formulation of meeting resolutions, meeting minutes and signature, announcement and other items, as well as the principles by which the shareholders' meeting authorizes the board of directors. The authorized content shall be definite and specific. The procedural rules of the shareholders' meeting shall be attached as an appendix to the Company's Articles of Association and shall be drafted by the board of directors and approved by the shareholders' meeting.

Article 69 The board of directors and the board of supervisors shall, at the annual shareholders' meeting, report their work for the last year to such meeting. Each independent director shall also report his work.

Article 70 Directors, supervisors, and senior executives shall at the shareholders' meeting give explanations and clarifications on the inquiries and recommendations raised by the shareholders.

Article 71 The presider of the shareholders' meeting shall, prior to vote, announce the total number of attending shareholders and proxies, and the total voting shares held by them. The total number of attending shareholders and proxies, and the total voting shares held by them shall be subject to registration before the shareholders' meeting.

Article 72 The shareholders' meeting shall have meeting minutes and these shall be the responsibility of the secretary of the board of directors. The meeting minutes shall record the following items:

(1) time, place, agenda, and name of the convener of the meeting;

- (2) name of the presider and each of the directors, supervisors, President and CEO and any other senior executive who attend the meeting with voting right or sit on the meeting;
- (3) total number of voting shares held by shareholders (including their proxies) by the domestic shares and shareholders (including their proxies) of domestically listed foreign-funded shares, and proportion of such total number in the Company's shares;
- (4) examination and deliberation procedure, main speech points and voting result of each proposal by shareholders of the domestic shares and shareholders of domestically listed foreign-funded shares;
- (5) inquiries or recommendations of the shareholders and the relevant replies or explanations thereto;
- (6) name of lawyers, vote counters and vote supervisor; and
- (7) other items shall be recorded in the meeting minutes in accordance with the provisions hereof.

Article 73 The convener shall ensure the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of the minutes of the shareholders' meeting. The attending directors, supervisors, secretary of the board of directors, convener or representative thereof, and the meeting presider shall sign the meeting minutes. Meeting minutes shall, together with the register of the present shareholders and the powers of attorney for attendance by proxy, and valid materials concerning votes through the internet and other means shall be kept together for a period of no less than ten years.

Article 74 The convener shall ensure the continuity of the shareholders' meeting until the final resolutions are formed. Where such specific reasons as force majeure or other special causes result in the suspension of the shareholders' meeting or the failure to adopt a resolution at the meeting, the necessary measures shall be taken to resume the shareholders' meeting as soon as possible or to directly close the meeting and make an immediate announcement. At the same time the convener shall report to the CSRC office in the place where the Company is located and the stock exchange.

Section 6 Vote and Resolution of Shareholders' meetings

Article 75 There shall be two types of resolutions of the shareholders' meeting: ordinary resolution and special resolution.

Ordinary resolutions made by the shareholders' meeting shall require more than half of the voting rights represented by the attending shareholders (including proxies thereof).

Special resolutions made by the shareholders' meeting shall require at least 2/3 of the voting rights represented by the attending shareholders (including proxies).

Article 76 The following matters shall require the approval of the shareholders' meeting by ordinary resolution:

- (1) work report of the board of directors and the board of supervisors
- (2) profit distribution plan and plan to recover Company losses as drafted by the board of directors;
- (3) appointment and dismissal of members of the board of directors and the board of supervisors, remunerations to them and the method for payment of such remunerations;
- (4) annual budget plan and final calculation plan of the Company;
- (5) annual report of the Company; and
- (6) other matters which shall be passed by special resolution in accordance with the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association.

Article 77 The following matters shall be passed at the shareholders' meeting by special resolution:

- (1) increase or decrease in the registered capital of the Company;
- (2) spin-off, split, merger/consolidation, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (3) amendment to these Articles of Association;
- (4) where, within the period of one year, purchases or sales by the Company or the amount of the guarantee provided by the Company exceeds 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (5) stock incentive plan; and
- (6) other matters which are prescribed in the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, as well as the matters which are deemed, if passed by means of ordinary resolution by the shareholders' meeting, that they may have significant potential influences upon the Company and shall be passed by special resolution.

Article 78 Shareholders (including proxies thereof) shall exercise their voting rights as represented by the number of voting shares held by them, and each share shall have one voting right.

The votes casted by minority investors shall be separately counted when material matters affecting the interests of minority investors are being examined and deliberated at the shareholders' meeting. The results of the separate vote-counting shall be publicly disclosed in a timely manner.

The shares held by the Company shall have no voting rights in themselves and shall not be calculated into the total number of voting shares held by the attending shareholders.

Where the shareholder violates the provisions of Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law in purchasing voting shares, the voting right of the part that has exceeded the prescribed proportion shall not be exercised within 36 months after the purchase, and such part of shares will not be included in the total number of voting shares held by the attending shareholders.

The board of directors, independent directors, shareholders holding more than 1% of the voting shares or the investor protection institutions statutorily set up may publicly collect the voting rights of shareholders.

Article 79 The board of directors shall decide whether the relevant items proposed to be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for examination and deliberation constitute affiliated transaction according to the laws, rules and the Listing Rules of Shenzhen Stock Exchange. Where the board of directors decide that the items proposed to be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for examination and deliberation constitute affiliated transaction, it shall inform the affiliated shareholders in writing.

The board of directors shall complete the aforesaid work before sending the notice of the shareholders' meeting, and disclose the details of the affiliated party in connection with the item proposed to be submitted to the shareholders' meeting for examination and deliberation.

When the shareholders' meeting examines and deliberates affiliated transactions, the affiliated shareholders shall submit the application to refrain from voting upon such affiliated transactions, and other parties shall have the right to require such shareholders to refrain from voting. The affiliated shareholders may explain and clarify the affiliated transaction concerning themselves and whether such transaction is fair and legal and reason thereof to the shareholders' meeting, but such shareholders shall not have right to vote with regard to this affiliated transaction and the number of voting rights represented by them shall not be calculated in the total number of valid votes; the announcement of the shareholders' meeting shall fully disclose the votes of the non-affiliated shareholders.

Article 80 Except for under unusual circumstances such as crisis and otherwise, the Company shall not sign a contract with any person other than the directors, President and CEO and senior executives, which specifies the entrustment by the Company of the management of all or important businesses to such person.

Article 81 The nomination and election of directors and supervisors.

(I) The methods and procedures of nomination and election of directors and supervisors:

The incumbent board of directors and board of supervisors and shareholders which meet certain conditions may nominate candidates of directors and supervisors in accordance with the provisions in laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

1. The Board of Directors of the Company or the shareholders singly or jointly holding more than 3% of the shares of the Company may nominate candidates to serve as non-independent directors.
2. The Board of Supervisors of the Company or the shareholders singly or jointly holding more than 3% of the shares of the Company may nominate candidates to serve as supervisors who are non-representatives of the employees.
3. The Board of Directors of the Company or the shareholders singly or jointly holding more than 1% of the shares of the Company may nominate candidates to serve as independent directors. An investor protection institution established in accordance with the laws may publicly request shareholders to entrust it to exercise the right to nominate independent directors on their behalf. The above-mentioned nominees shall not nominate individuals with interests or other closely related individuals who may affect independent performance as independent director candidates.

The nominator of an independent director shall nominate the nominee with such nominee's prior consent. The nominator shall adequately understand the profession, academic qualifications, professional titles, detailed work experience, all part-time jobs of the nominee and whether the nominee has any negative record of material dishonesty, and express his opinion on the independence and other qualifications of the nominee's serving as an independent director, and the nominee shall make a public statement on his independence and other qualifications serving as an independent director. Before the convening of the shareholders' meeting relating to the election of the independent director, the board of directors shall announce said content according to relevant regulations.

4. In addition to other items provided in this article, the board of directors shall announce the resume and basic information of each candidate director and supervisor to the shareholders.

(II) The method and procedure to vote upon the election of directors and supervisors

When the shareholders' meeting votes upon the election of directors and supervisors in accordance with these Articles of Association or the resolution adopted by the shareholders' meeting, the cumulative voting system may be used.

The "cumulative voting" stated in the preceding paragraph shall mean when the shareholders' meeting is electing directors or supervisors, each share shall have the same number of voting rights as the number of candidate directors or supervisors who are up for election, and the voting rights of all the shareholders may be exercised in a centralized manner, or distributed to two or more candidate directors with all votes, and the candidate who obtained more votes shall be elected.

1. The specific voting method to vote upon the election of directors shall be:

(1) The voting upon the election of independent directors and common directors shall be separated. The specific method is:

When voting upon the election of independent directors, the number of voting rights of each shareholder shall be the product of the shares he held multiplies the number of independent directors he is entitled to vote, and such numbers of voting right shall only be voted to independent directors.

When voting upon the election of common directors, the number of voting rights of each shareholder shall be the product of the shares he held multiplies the number of common directors he is entitled to vote, and such numbers of voting right shall only be voted to common directors.

(2) When filling out the ballot, a shareholder may distribute to one candidate directors with all voting power he held, or distributed to several candidate directors and indicate the voting power distributed to each candidate thereafter. If a shareholder specifically disapproves any one or more candidates and vote for others, the name of the person being voted shall be filled in and indicating with the voting power distributed to such candidate thereafter.

(3) Where the total number of voting power on a vote exceeds the legitimate number of voting power of a shareholder, such vote shall be deemed invalid.

(4) Where the total number of voting power on a vote is no more than the legitimate number of voting power of a shareholder, such vote shall be deemed valid.

- (5) After the voting, the votes shall be counted and the votes obtained by each candidate shall be announced, and the directors elected shall be determined based upon the number of votes obtained by candidate directors.
- (6) The principle of election of directors: the final directors elected shall be determined based upon the number of votes obtained by candidate directors, but the lowest votes obtained by each director elected shall be more than half of the voting power of the shareholders attend the shareholders' meeting (including proxies thereof).
- (7) Where the number of candidate directors is more than the number of candidate directors to be elected, the director elected shall be determined according to the votes obtained by them in descending order. However, the number of voting rights of a director elected shall meet the requirement as set forth in Item (6) hereof.
- (8) If the number of candidate directors obtained the same votes exceed such kind of directors to be elected, the said candidate directors shall be voted again according to the procedures set forth in this article until the director is elected.
- (9) If a proxy vote fails to elect required number of a kind of directors required according to Articles of Association, the candidate directors with inadequate amount of votes shall be voted again and if the number of directors elected still fails to meet the requirement, then it shall be voted in next shareholders' meeting.
- (10) Before the shareholders voted upon the election of directors, the board of directors shall be responsible in construing the specific method of proxy vote set forth in these Articles of Association and ensure the shareholders to execute their voting rights correctly.

2. The election of supervisors of the shareholders' meeting of the Company shall be executed in accordance with the method of voting upon the election of directors set forth hereof.

Article 82 In addition to the cumulative voting, the shareholders' meeting may take a vote on all the proposals item by item. Where different proposals are submitted for the same matter, votes shall be cast in the sequence that such proposals are submitted. The shareholders' meeting shall not postpone or refuse voting upon the said proposals unless the meeting is suspended or they are unable to adopt a resolution as a result of particular reasons such as force majeure and otherwise.

Article 83 The shareholders' meeting, when examining and deliberating the proposals, shall not amend them, otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be deemed as a new proposal which shall not be voted on at the same shareholders' meeting.

Article 84 Each voting right shall choose only one of such means including onsite, through the internet or otherwise. The first voting result prevails if repeated votes arise by the same voting right.

Article 85 Votes at the shareholders' meeting shall be by means of open ballot.

Article 86 Prior to vote on proposals at the shareholders' meeting, two shareholders shall be elected by the shareholders' meeting to participate in the vote calculation and supervision. If shareholders have any relation with the matters to be examined and deliberated on, the concerned shareholders and proxies thereof shall not take part in the vote calculation and supervision.

When the shareholders' meeting is voting on proposals, the lawyers, representatives of shareholders and supervisors shall be jointly responsible for the vote calculation and supervision thereof and for the announcement of the voting results which shall be recorded into the minutes of the meeting.

Shareholders of Company or their proxies who cast votes via internet or through any other means shall have the right to examine their voting results by accessing to the corresponding voting system.

Article 87 The onsite shareholders' meeting shall not be terminated earlier than the shareholders' meeting held through the internet or by any other means. The presider of the onsite shareholders' meeting shall announce the votes and voting results of each proposal and announce if the proposals have been passed according to the voting results.

Prior to the formal announcement of the voting results, the companies, vote counters, vote supervisors, major shareholders and the internet service providers and other related parties involved in the shareholders' meeting held onsite, through the internet or by any other means shall bear obligation of confidentiality on the voting results.

Article 88 The attending shareholders shall give their opinions on the proposals submitted for vote, being: affirmative, negative or abstention vote, except that a securities registration and settlement institution serving as the nominal holder of the stocks under Inter-connected Mechanism for Trading on Stock Markets in the Mainland and Hong Kong make declaration according to the intention of the actual holders.

The blank, falsely-filled and unreadable votes as well as votes that are not made shall be deemed as abstention, and the voting results represented by the shares of the abstention voter shall be filled with "abstention".

Article 89 Where the presider has any doubt about the voting results, he may organize to have the number of votes counted; where the presider fails to do so and the attending shareholders or the proxies thereof challenge the voting results announced by the presider, they are entitled to require the counting of votes immediately upon the announcement of the voting results and the presider shall organize the vote calculation without delay.

Article 90 The resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be announced promptly and such announcement shall indicate the number of shareholders of domestic shares and foreign-funded shares which attend the meeting, the number of voting shares held by them, the proportions of their voting shares in the total voting shares of the Company, the voting methods, the vote results of each proposal and the particulars of each resolution adopted.

Article 91 Where the proposals fail to be passed by the shareholders' meeting or the previous resolutions of the last shareholders' meeting are altered at the current shareholders' meeting, special indications shall be made in the announcement of the said meeting.

Article 92 Where the shareholders' meeting passes a proposal concerning election of directors and supervisors, the starting time of their assumption of office shall be the date of resolution of the shareholders' meeting is made, and in the case of a supervisor as a representative of the employees shall be the date of resolution of the employee representatives' meeting is made.

Article 93 Where the shareholders' meeting passes a proposal regarding the distribution of cash dividends, share granting or conversion of common reserve fund into share capital, the Company shall implement the detailed plan for such proposals within two months from the closing of the shareholders' meeting.

Article 185 The liquidation group shall notify the creditors within 10 days from the date of its establishment and make the announcement within 60 days in newspaper appointed by the CSRC. The creditors shall, within 30 days from the date of the receipt of the said notice, or if failing to receive such notice, within 45 days from the date of the said announcement, declare their creditors' rights to the liquidation group.

When reporting claims, the creditors shall explain matters relevant to their claims and shall provide evidentiary materials. The liquidation group shall register creditor's claims.

During the declaration of the creditor's claims, the liquidation group shall not discharge the debts of creditors.

Article 186 The liquidation group shall, after having liquidated the Company' assets and prepared the balance sheet and the inventory of properties, formulate the liquidation plan and submit it to the shareholders' meeting or the people's court for confirmation.

The portion of the Company's properties remaining after they are used to pay for the liquidation expense, salary of the staff and workers, social insurance expense, statutory compensation, and the taxes and debts in arrears, shall be distributed by the Company in proportions to shares held by the shareholders.

The Company shall, during the liquidation period, remain in existence, but shall not carry out activities irrelevant to the liquidation. The Company's properties, before they are used to discharge the Company's debts in accordance with the preceding paragraph, may not be distributed to the shareholders.

Article 187 Where after liquidating the Company's properties and preparing the balance sheet and the inventory of properties, the liquidation group discovers that the Company's properties are insufficient to repay the Company's debts, it shall apply for bankruptcy to the people's court.

After the Company is declared bankrupt by ruling of the people's court, the liquidation group shall transfer liquidation matters to the people's court.

Article 188 After the completion of the liquidation, the liquidation group shall devise a liquidation report and submit it to the shareholders' meeting or the people's court for confirmation and also to the Company registration authority for cancellation of the Company's registration and then shall announce the termination of the Company.

Article 189 Members of the liquidation group shall be faithful to their duties and fulfill their liquidation obligations in accordance with the law.

Members of the liquidation group shall not abuse their powers to accept bribery or any other illegal income, nor misappropriate the Company's properties.

Where members of the liquidation group incur losses to the Company or the creditors thereof intentionally or due to gross negligence, they shall be liable to compensation.

Article 190 Where the Company is lawfully declared bankrupt, it shall carry out bankruptcy liquidation in accordance with laws concerning the bankruptcy of enterprises.

Chapter 12 Amendments to the Articles of Association
